SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE-We desire to call the attention of parties who have property for sale with-in the city to the fact that our facilities for bringing bargains to the attention of investors are unsurpassed. We have of investors are unsurpassed. We have a contract with The Roanoko Times Company for this space for one year, which is subject to change each day. Any one desiring to make a quick sale of desirable property can have the same brought before the public free of charge by listing with

WILBUR S. POLE & CO.,

Rooms 3 and 4, Exchange Building.

NOTICE.

We can sell lots in the heart of the town at 25 to 40 per cent. lower than any other lots near them can be bought for. SIMMONS, AMBLER & CO., REAL ESTATE AGENTS, Buchanan, Va. Office corner Washington and Water streets.

WILLIAM C. NOLAND,

ARCHITECT, Commercial Bank Building, cor. Jefferson st. and Campbell ave., Roanoke.

Late chief assistant to architect, Philadelphia City Hall; for several years assistant to the following well-known architects: T. P. Chandler, Phila.; Cope & Stewardson, Phila., and Edward H. Kendall, New York city. Drawings and photographs of all kinds of buildings may be seen at his office. be seen at his office. jan21-wtf-1m

A UCTION SALE OF LAMBERT'S

POINT LOTS, NORFOLK, VA,

JANUARY 27th, 1891, 12 M. ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FOUR (174) LOTS

25x120 feet to a ten-foot alley will be offored at public auction on TUESDAY, JANUARY 27th, AT 12 M., in the rooms of the Real Estate Ex-change, Norfolk, Va.

These lots are located at the mouth of Lambert's Creek, with a commanding view of the shipping, and in close prox-mity to the shipping, and in close prox-mity to the new freight warchouse of the N. and W. R. R., and immediately at the point where Princess Ann avenue will cross Lambert's Crook on the sed bridge. TEN LOTS LOCATED AMONG THE

ABOVE HAVE BEEN RESERVED BY THE PRESENT OWNER FOR BUILDING PURPO-SES.

TERMS OF SALE - One-half cash; palance in six and twelve months. Notes at 60 days will be taken in lieu of ash from responsible parties. For futher information, call on

W. H. H. TRICE & CO., Auctioneers, Norfolk, Va.

Inquire also of members of the Real Estate Exchange. Teams will be furnished by W. H. H. Trice & Co. free of harge to visit the property.

MALL ON

J. R. HOCKADAY, THE PIONEER AGENT,

ROANOKE REAL ESTATE.

SALEM AVENUE WON'T BE IN IT.
Watch for the new jewelry house at Watch for the new jewelry house at 4 Jefferson street. Goods will be sold at their value. H. N. CAMPE.

SALEM AVENUE WON'T BE IN IT. Watch for the new jewelry house at 14 Jefferson street. Goods will be sold at their value. H. N. CAMPE. jan20-6t

CALEM AVENUE WON'T BE IN IT. Watch for the new jewelry house at 4 Jefferson street. Goods will be sold

AN ATTEMPTED BRIBE.

Washington Legislator Deposits $500 Paid for a Senatorial Vote.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 21-[Special]us, after Speaker Shaw issued his call or nominations for United Stater Senaor yesterday afternoon, Representative ohn Metcalf arose and said :

"I hold in my hand $500 which was anded to me by Harry A. Clark, of spokane Falls, with the express undertanding that I should cast my vote for by H. Calking for Scenator." H. Calkins for Senator.'

Several seconds of the profoundest dence prevailed throughout the hall. Metcalf sent the money to the ker and resumed his seat. Col peaker and resumed his seat. Col. guires' supporters then began cheering, ind it was some minutes before the beaker could restore order. As soon as e could do so a motion was carried ap ointing a committee of five to investi the the charge of bribery, and the louse adjourned till 8 o'clock p. m., when a vote for Senator was taken schuires received 43, Calkins 15, Carroll 71. Squires has the majority in both

The Chilian Revolt.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—[Special]—Dis-taches from Buenos Ayres state that fairs in Chili are far from improving. disiderable dissension already exists mong the Chilian troops and this feelng is rapidly spreading. A number of overnment troops have already joined insurgent forces with their arms ind baggage. This has tended to raise he spirits and expectations of the inurgents who are preparing to take vi-corour action, So far the insurgents seem to be gaining ground.

The State Real Estate Convention

Selects Roanoke for Headquarters:

A Close Fight, But it is Made Unanimous on Motion of Rawlings. of Richmond.

Proceedings of Yesterday's Session.

Opening of the Convention-Mayor Evans' Address--Called to Order by Major A. Myers, of Norfolk--His Graceful Response--Getting Down to Business. Slow Work and Free Opinions, but Good Results Obtained -- The Delegate Idea Provails--Hammering on the Constitution and By-Laws--List of Delegates Present-- A Ride This Morning Refore Reassembling and the Banquet To-Night.

ated scenes all yesterday. Long before the hour of opening the convention the real estate men began to gather in groups discussing the subjects that were to come before the convention.

The leaders of the Roanoke Exchange were early on hand arranging the rooms and welcoming the visitors. The exchange hall on the third floor, and the commercial school room adjoining, were thrown into one, and then the spacious hall was filled almost to overflowing. When President A. Myers, of Norfolk, rapped the convention to order at 12:20 he looked into the faces of over two hundred hustling dealers in Virginia

Rev. J. H. Boyd of Greene Memorial Church opened the convention with a short prayer, and the president announced Mayor Evans to deliver the address of welcome. The mayor ascended the rostrum and said:

did not know until a few hours ago that it would be my pleasant duty to welcome you to the hospitality of Roanoke, and I was not elected mayor of this sympathy with the objects of this meet-

"Eight years ago Roanoke was the little tillage of Big Lick. Where now are elegant houses was only a dirty swamp. We did not sell land by the lot, but by the acre and you could buy the choice for $200 per acre.

morning by the chief of police, who instructed his men to be at their posts,—the town was full of real estate agents [laughter.]

your efforts in the past, until the hoped that I would not be called upon to raise my voice in the set phrases of speech within your hearing. Another tongue than mine should pay the compliment of well-merited praise to your 'Magic City,' and return the thanks of the convention for this magnificent reception of her generous and public-mean and unworthy the occasion and such is my anxiety in this presence that my untrained speech will not express the impulses of my heart or the dictates the impulses of my heart or the dictates of my mind.

"Happy are we, gentlemen, that this convention brings us within the range of your knightly courtesy and that we are permitted to behold the evidences of your energy and thrift. Everywhere within this thriving city are monuments of your energy and wisdom, and throughout the commonwealth your prethen out the commonwealth your brethren marks your homes was a wayside station, which I remember as 'Big Lick,' but you have carred a city out of a wilderness; you have peopled it with an active population of busy merchants and skillful artisans, until now the very air is musical with the song of trade and the busy hum of a thousand industries. You have started a new era in the history of the old common-wealth; you have awakened her from her Rip Van Winkle sleep; you have stirred her people from the mountains to the scapoard and inaugurated a reign to the scapoard and inaugurated a reign of prosperity that will culminate in placing Virginia where she deserves to be—first in the sisterhood of States.

"Gentlemen, this is no fulsome eulogy or idle compliment; but I voice the sentiments of your brethren and express their honest convictions. In the spirit of prophecy I venture the prediction, that if the same energy marks your progress in the future as in the past, the city of Roanoko in ten years will have outstripped her sisters in the race for commercial supremacy, and that she will be the banner city of the commonwealth in population, wealth and she will be the banner city of the com-monwealth in population, wealth and influence. Will you make the prophecy good? But, gentlemen, I will not trespass longer upon the business of the conven-tion. I only arose to return the thanks of this convention for your generous and hospitable reception, and to assure you that we will long remember the kind-ness and hospitality of the citizens of Roanoke. And, sir, to your hong, we Roanoke. And, sir, to your honor, we heartily thank you for your courtly remark, in welcoming this convention within the borders of your corporate limits."

sented by 4; Front Royal 33, represented by 3.

The following are the names of the members of the convention, exclusive of Roanoke:

Richmond—Louis Rawlings, Ed. S. Ross, Geo. S. Vaston and Jno. I. Boswell.

Norfolk—Smith & Pannill, L. B.
Carnie, H. C. Hoggard, C. W. Fentress,
A. W. Corniek, E. M. Henry, W. H.
Hannah, Walter Sharp, H. L. Page, E.
A. Page, Barton Myers, I. F. Rogers, C.
B. Roper, E. D. Priddy, A. W. Parsons,
A. Myers, G. M. Pollard.

A. Myers, G. M. Pollard.
Lynchburg—R. P. Boyer, J. A. Mahood, A. W. Butler, L. P. Shaner, W. S. Poindexter.
Bristol—F. T. Brinkley, Geo, P. Cannon, H. E. Penn.
Charlottesville—F. P. Farish.
Salem—T. T. Smith, C. M. Killia, n. N. D. Burnett, D. H. Mendenhall, J. W. Bushong, F. O. Barnes, W. R. Burdette, C. C. Helms, B. W. Logan, J. Francis, W. H. Terrell, W. L. Brand, J. B. Powell, B. C. Strouse, W. McCluag, J. W. Hannah, A. Riddick, J. R. Thomas, J. H. Frantz, R. S. Stearnes, J. B. Friest, W. H. King.
Buena Vista—J. T. Stewart, W. L. Waller, Mr. Moore, Mr. Clours, C. H. Jordan, J. L. Yarrell, Mr. Burke.
Newport News—W. E. Barrett, B. D. Chandler, W. J. Nelms.
Glasgow—David Funston, H. B. Medler, Mr. D. L. Parid Funston, H. B. Medler, M. B. P. L. Parid Funston, H. B. Medler, M. B. Parid Funston, A. D. Parid Funston, A. B. Parid Funston, A. B. Parid Chang, A. D. Parid Funston, A. B. Parid Funston, A.

Then the business of the day was taken up.

The president stated that the meeting

The president stated that the meeting

The president stated that the meeting that the meeting

WHERE THE CONVENTION IS BEING HELD.

In the discussion of this matter the question arose as to what should be the basis of votes—whether each individual or each firm should be allowed a vote. Mr. Rawlings, of Richmond, said the four delegates from Richmond were the accredited representatives of thirty firms.

Mr. B. Myers, of Norfolk, moved that a committee of seven on credentials be all real estate agents had been invited and were entitled to seats in the convention.

committee.
Mr. Buford, of Bedford City, thought that this would raise a difficult question that the what constituted a town. | Laugh-

Col. Barkley, and the motion prevailed. The chair appointed the committee as follows: B. Myers, of Norfolk; Rawlings, of Richmond; Col. Barkly, of Radford; Riddick, of Salem; Dupuy, of Roanoke; Eggleston, of Glasgow, and Parker, of Wytheville.

The convention then adjourned 'till 3 o'clock.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.

Shortly after three President Myers again called the convention to order. The report of the committee on credentials was presented by B. Myers, chair-man of the committee. The report stated there were three classes of members entitled to seats in the convention, those who come from towns where there are local exchanges, those from towns where there are no organizations, and the four Richmond delegate come as the accredited delegates of thirty Richmond firms that are not organized as an exchange

The committee recommended that the representatives from the different ex-changes be allowed to cast a vote for every firm in their respective exchanges, that the Richmond delegation be allowed thirty votes, and that every firm repre-sented from localities where there were

The representation in the Convention was announced as follows: Richmond 30 votes, represented by 4 delegates; Norvotes, represented by 4 delegates; Norfolk 26 votes, by 18 delegates; Lynchburg 19 votes, by 5 delegates; Roanoke
54; Bristol 14, represented by 3 delegates; Charlottesville, 1; Newport News,
3; Buena Vista 30, represented by 6;
Buchanan 38, represented by 8; Glasgow
35, represented by 9; Bedford City 13,
represented by 9; Bedford City 13,
represented by 2; Radford 32, represented by 13; Max Meadows 8, represented by 5; Tazewell Court House, 1; Salem 32, represented by 26; Vinton, 3;
Shendun 12, represented by 1; Wytheville,
7; Mechanicsburg, 1; Pulaski 11, repreresented by 1; Pulaski 11, reprerepresented by 1; Pulaski 11, reprerepresented by 20; Vinton, 3;
Shendun 12, represented by 1; Wytheville,
7; Mechanicsburg, 1; Pulaski 11, repre-

Buchanan—Paul C. Edmunds, Jr., J. W. Daniel, Jr., J. C. Page, J. J. Allen, Jas. McDowell, V. N. Simmons, E. J. McCollough, Allen W. Finch.

Bedford City—R. D. Buford, J. M. Nelme.

Bedford City—R. D. Buford, J. M. Nelms.
Radford, Va.—R. H. Adams, L. H. Meares, G. T. Kinsley, J. N. Norfleet, J. Dryfoos, J. R. Jordan, D. H. Hoge, J. E. Diffenburgh, —— Center, A. Robinson, G. E. Cassel, H. H. Powers, C. M. Caldwell, C. W. Sanders, —— Vaughan, —— Schwartz, —— Lucas, N. R. Stanger, W. W. Barclay.

Max Meadows—E. W. Grigg, W. A. Caldwell.

Caldwell. Shenandoah-Davison McCormick, B.

Shenamusa.

C. Fechtig.
Vinton—R. S. Boswell.

Tazwell Court House—J. H. Hasman.
Elkton— Jarman, A. W. Butler,
Miller & Forbes, J. G. H. Miller & Co.,
Mahood & Balton.

Mahood & Balton.
Shendun—T. C. Morton.
Wytheville—R. S. Withers, Jr., G. S.
Sexton, E. P. Parker, W. L. Yost, W.

O. Moore,
Mechanicsburg—C. W. Compton,
Pulaski City—Jno. T Loving, B. E.
Watson, A. D. Witten, Frank Harrison,
Front Royal—C. W. L. Turner, M.

Front Royal—C. W. L. Turner, M. Griffith, C. M. Brown.
Farmville—Patterson, R. B. Berkley.
Middletown—W. S. Pole & Co, Spencer and Von Ringharz, Miller & Rogers, C. E. Edmondson.

The report was adopted on motion of r. Morton, of Shendun.
The report of the committee on plan of organization was called for and taken up by sections.

Section 1, article 1, of the constitution was amended, making the name of the organization The Virginia Real Estate Exchange.

Clause 3, of section 2 of the same article was amended to read.

"To secure such legislation as will be be for our advancement and protection."
Section 1, article 2, in relation to members was amended so as to make the members of the State Exchange consist of the local exchanges, and any licensed land agent, real estate auctioneer or rental agent in any place in Virginia where there may be no local organization. in Virginia where there may local organization.

The clauses regulating the vote of the State Exchange and the member-ship fees were passed over.

Then came the most interesting and exciting scene of the day. The report of the committee fixed the headquarters of the exchange at Richmond. The convention was nervous and restless just in condition for a lively time—and when this clause was reached half a dozen men were on their feet in a flash, but Mr. Parker, of Wytheville, caught the president's eye first. He moved that Roanoke be substituted for Richmond. Mr. Ludwig moved as an amendment that the headquarters be in the town where the president may reside. Mr. Carnie, of Norfolk, moved a still further amendment to make the headqurters of Reanoke. After a lively cross fire of of Reanoke. After a lively cross fire of an hour the question came up on Mr. Hill's motion to lay aside, which was defeated; then on Mr. Carnie's and Mr. Ludwig's amendments to Mr. Parker's motion and they in turn were lost. The question then coming up on the original motion, the many friends of Roanoke voted aye with a yell that almost lifted the roof from the building, apparently carrying the motion for Roanoke by a large majority. Mr. Rawlings said that his side could not make as much noise as the others and demanded the noise as the others and demanded the ayes and noes.

The secretary proceeded with the roll call with the following result:

Ayes — Roanoke, 54; Bristol, 14; Salem, 32; Buchanan, 35; Radford, 32; Max Meadows, 8; Shendun, 12; Vinton, 3; Farnville, 2; Tazewell Court House, 1; Elkton, 15; Wytheville, 7; Pulaski, 11; Front Royal, 11; Middleton, 1. Total, 238.

Naevs—Richmond, 30 Norfelb, 28.

Total, 238.

Naeys+Richmond, 30, Norfolk, 26;
Lynchburg, 19; Charlottesville, 1; Newport News, 3; Buena Vista, 30; Glasgow, 35; Bedford City, 13; Shenandoah, 4; Front Royal, 22. Total, 186.

Intense interest was manifested throughout the taking of the vote. Salem's vote for Roanoke received tremendous applause, and every place that voted for the Magic City was liberally applauded. The victory for Roanoke was received with unbounded enthusiasm that was finally suppressed by the vigorous use of President Myers' gavel.

As soon as the result was announced

As soon as the result was announced Mr. Rawling's moved to make the action unanimous, which was carried with a whoop. The convention then adjourned until 8 o'clock. THE EVENING SESSION.

THE EVENING SESSION.

The convention met again at a few minutes after 8 o'clock and remained in session until 11, when the constitution was adopted as a whole.

At the beginning of the evening session the reading and amending of the constitution was continued.

It was decided that the annual meeting should be held on the third Wednesday in July, and that the board of ten directors after the first election should be elected annually on that day.

be elected annually on that day.

W. P. Dupuy moved that there be sixteen directors instead of ten, that there be five vice-presidents instead of one, and that the president and vice-presidents be members ex officio of the board of directors. of directors.

Nine members, it was moved, should Nine members, it was moved, should constitute a quorum for business. Walter Sharp, of Norfolk, moved to amend by providing for seven. The latter motion prevailed.

In the absence of the president the senior vice-president, it was decided, should preside at meetings.

Mr. Cannon, of Bristol, moved that the secretary and treasurer leaves a list should preside at meetings.

Mr. Cannon, of Bristol, moved that the secretary and treasurer keep a list of the members of the exchange, and have an official list printed of all such members and sent out to the public, and also notify members of the expulsion or addition of any member.

Barton Myers offered a substitute, dividing section 3 and providing for two officers, a secretary and a treasurer.

He thought that one would act as a check upon the other in keeping accounts. He believed that the officers of the exchange should be distributed as widely as possibly over the State.

Mr. Buford, of Bedford City, opposed the division. He thought it was best to have as little machinery about the exchange as possible. Apparently Mr. Myers' motion was lost on a yea and nay vote. A scale vote was demanded, which resulted, 146 ayes and 278 noes, Roanoke's vote having been east in the negative.

M. T. C. Jordan said that, as chairman

M. T. C. Jordan said that, as chairman of the caucus of the Roanoke exchange, he desired to change the vote of Roahe desired to change the vote of Roa-noke from no to aye.

At this Messrs, Ludwig, Dupuy, Rice,
Page and others demanded to know Mr.
Jordan's authority. Mr. Jordan replied that at the caucus of the members of the Roanoke Exchange in the afternoon he had been directed to cast the vote of the delegation on this question in the negative. Mr. Page and others declared that the caucus was held for an entirely different purpose. F. B. Ludwig said that he knew nothing of the caucus and was not present.

matter among themselves.

When they returned Mr. Jordan announced that Roanoke had decided to

The secretary then announced the vote, 200 ayes and 226 noes, and the motion to divide the office of secretary and treasurer was lost. It was decided that the bond and sal ary of the secretary and treasurer should be fixed by the board of directors. The article on amendments was amended, dropping out the clause providing for giving notice of one month prior to a called meeting of any intention of amending the constitution.

Sections 4 and 5, of article I, were then taken up.
Mr. Barton Myers moved that each member be required to pay an initiation fee of five dollars; that a member mean a firm, and that each exchange becoming a member of the State Exchange be taxed five dollars per capita.

A long debate ensued over this motion, it being held on one side that each exchange should be compelled to be responsible for as many members initiation fees it had votes in the State Ex-change, and on the other side that it would be unfair to hold an exchange responsible for all its members. The mo tion of Mr. Myers, however, was carried

F. B. Ludwig moved that the annual dues be fixed at $10, payable $5 each six months. Mr. Cannon, of Bristol moved that the annual dues be $5 per month. The dues were fixed at $5 per o'clock adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock this morning.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Arrivals Last Night.

The following gentlemen arrived last night and will be in the convention today.

today.

Henry Davis, J. Turner Smith, Geo.
H. Paddock, of Salem; W. Griffith and
C. W. Turner, of Front Royal; H. K.
Tallant, L. Meares, J. M. Norfleet,
Charles M. Caldwell and J. N. Duffenbaugh, Radford; H. C. McCling, Glasgow; R. L. Gardner, T. R. Massie, W.
L. Gooch, Pulaski; John T. Corran,
Montgomery county; C. H. Price, Jr., J.
H. Callett, W. B. Alley. Buena Vista;
J. Howard Wayt, Stannton; J. W.
Daniel, Jr., H. A. La Fave, A. W.
Finch, C. Whitely, Jr., Buchanan; R. E.
Wysor, Dublin; W. T. Yancy, Lynchburg; D. Preston Parr, Jr., R. K. Kirtis,
E. D. Hatcher, W. L. Otey, Mathew
Nelms, S. H. Burt, Jr., Nelson Sale,
Bedford City; W. A. Caldwell, Max
Meadows.

The Banquet.

"Mine Host" Smith, of the Ponce de Leon, told a Times reporter that there would be 275 plates set at the banquet to the real estate delegates.

The dinning rooms will be adorned with palms and other tropical potted plants, and at each plate will be magnificent button-hole bouquets of violets, rose buds and other choice flowers, ordered from the hot houses of Washington.

"The menu cards," Mr. Smith said,
"will be the handsomest ever gotten out in the State."

The Programme To-Day.

The visiting delegates to the conven-tion will be driven around the city to see the various points of interest this morning.

They will assemble in convention at 10 o'clock. There is considerable interest in the election of the officers of the State Exchange, which comes off the state backers, to-day.

If the business is gotten through with to-day the banquet this evening will be the closing event of the convention.

A CLEARING HOUSE.

Roanoke's Bankers Meet at Mr. P. L. Terry's and Decide to Have One. President P. L. Terry, of the Roanoke Loan, Trust, & Safe Depasit Company, tendered a reception to the bankers of the city at his residence last night. There were President Trout, of the First National; President Coon and Cashier Davenport, of the Commercial National; J. Fishburne, of the Exchange National; Messrs. Vincent, Jaminson and S. B. Haupt, of the Fidelity Loan & Trust Company; Messrs. Asberry and Markley, from the Traders' Loan & Trust, Company; President Jacob Smith, of the Roanoke Savings Bank; Dupuy Ferguson, of Ferguson's Bank; Messra. Didier and Levy, of the Citizen's Bank; Messrs. Rhodes, Darnell and Davis, of the Roanoke Loan, Trust, & Safe Detail Company and C. A. Mellugh, of Cashier Davenport, of the Commercial the Roanoke Loan, Trust, & Safe De-posit Company and C. A. McHugh, of the Iron Belt, Building & Loan Associ-

After partaking of a fine dinner the bankers resolved themselves into a sion for the consideration of important business, with Mr. Haupt, as chairman.

Mr. Terry then stated that Roanoke has reached a stage in her progress when a Banker's Association was a mecessity.

Mr. Trout heartily seconded Mr. Terry's remarks. "We only begin to clear at 3 o'clock, and very often one bank has $50,000 worth of checks for clearing. We must have a clearing Terry called attention to the Mr. Terry called attention to the fact that a system of bank inspection for State banks should be established.

The other bankers concurred in these opinions, and Messrs. Trout, Coon, T.
T. Fishburne and Terry wero appointed a committee to ascertain what was needed definitely, and call a meeting of the bankers at their discretion.

POOR KING KALAKAUA.

The Remains of the Petty Princeling to

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.-[Special]-The body of the late King Kalakaua was embalmed last night. To-day the remains were placed in a metal casket. hermetically sealed and conveyed to the mortuary chapel of Trinity Church, where they will be guarded by a detail from the United States army forces, here. The remains will not be in state and will not be exhibited to the public.

At 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon the funeral services will be held at Trinity Church, the remains then be escorted by United States troops, second brigade, California National guard and various Masonic bodies to the wharf, where they will be officially received by Rear Admiral Brown and conveyed on board the flag ship Charleston, which came down from Mars Island ventured. down from Mare Island yesterday. The Charleston will sail for Honolulu at 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Col. S. MacFarlane and Baker and the king's personal attendants will accompany the remains.

Four Banks in One Week.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 21 .- [Special]-A special to the Star from Atchison, Kans., says: The Cawker City State Bank has failed, and is in the hands of a receiver. Liabilities and assets cannot be ascer-tained. This makes the third bank in tained. This makes the third bank in Mitchell county that has failed this week, and the fourth within a week.

Under Military Guard.

PETERSBURG, Va., Jan. 21.-[Special] John Irving, the negro, charged with being accessory to the murder of Captain R. C. Overley in Mecklenburg county, was taken to Boydton, the county seat, to-day by the Petersburg Greys for trial. The military guard was necessary to brevent lynching.

The Weather To-Day.

Forecast: For Virginia rain, slightly colder in eastern, stationary temperature in northern portion, southerly

FOR ROANOKE.

THE TIMES building presented anim-

"MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN: I

city on my reputation as a speaker. "The citizens of Roanoko recognize the work that has been done here by the real estate men, and they are in

Six years ago we were chartered as a city with 5,000 population, and to-day I welcome you among us on behalf of the 22,000 people of this city.

"I was reminded of this meeting this cause the chief thought you were going to cause trouble but to show off the police force to the visitors, for the chief like the rest of us is proud of the force. "We realize that you are lending a helping hand to the development of the great resources of our State, and hope that your efforts to bring before the eyes of the world the hidden wealth of Virginia may continue to meet with the success that has crowned your efforts in the past, until the 'Old Dominion' is in the front rank of the industrial States of the Union. Hoping that you will enjoy your stay in Roanoke I again welcome you."

President Myers, on behalf of the visitors, responned as follows:

"Mr. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN: I had spirited citizens.

"I have no words that do not seem glorying in your achievements, wonder at the magic of the magicians who built so wisely and so well this magic city.

"But a short time since the site that was an adjourned meeting of the convention of real estate men held in Norfolk in November last, and that its object was to form a State Exchange.

The proceedings of the Norfolk Exchange were read and approved, and the president stated that the first business was to hear the report of the committee.

president stated that the first business was to hear the report of the committee of nine appointed to prepare plans for the organization of the State Exchange.

T. C. Morton, of Shendun, moved to hear the report, and the motion prevailed after considerable discussion, but the hearing of the report was finally deterred.

In the discussion of this matter the appointed.

Mr. Ludwig, of Roanoke said that

Col. Barkley, of Radford, moved to amend Mr! Myers motion, putting one representative from each town on the

Mr. Myers accepted the amendment of no exchanges be allowed a vote.